The release of documents by Tulsi Gabbard, the Director of National Intelligence, has finally exposed how, when, and who put together the elaborate Russia collusion hoax that hobbled President Donald Trump in his first administration. What is not well known is how the hoax was part of a larger plan by the Deep State to embroil the U.S. in endless wars while gutting its manufacturing industries, thereby facilitating China's rise to global hegemony.

Key Deep State actors were following a script given to them by hostile extraterrestrials described as Draco Reptilians and Orion Grays, who were allied with a breakaway German group called the 4th Reich. In the 1950s, during the administration of President Dwight Eisenhower, it became clear that MJ-12, the group running extraterrestrial projects, had gone rogue and had become incredibly powerful through the reverse-engineered technologies it had acquired. Eisenhower alluded to the danger posed by MJ-12 and warned Americans and the world about it.

In addition, Eisenhower created a safety valve in the form of a special section of the U.S. Marine Corps whose responsibility was to monitor MJ-12 operations and intervene if the American Republic was ever threatened. That intervention occurred with the recruitment of Trump to run for the Presidency in 2016, and efforts to expose the Deep State through their attempts to remove him from power by a hoax Russia collusion narrative.

Trump's attempt to start a peace dialogue with Russia and to stop further Middle East wars from happening has neutralized the Deep State 's efforts to create a Gog and Magog End Times war, and the appearance of fake extraterrestrial saviors. Gabbard's revelation makes clear who the chief Deep State culprits are, thereby making it possible for their arrest and the end of Deep State influence all over the planet. This will make possible an official disclosure announcement of friendly extraterrestrials working with the Trump administration to usher in a Star Trek future.

DR. SALLA: In a stunning political development, Director of National Intelligence Tulsi Gabbard dropped a bombshell when she told the public and released documents that the Russia collusion was a hoax all along. Seeing the geopolitical elements of the Russia collusion hoax is very important for understanding how the Earth Alliance with friendly extraterrestrials are resting back control of the planet from the Deep State, the Satanists and the Draco-Reptilian and Orion Grays that have been running it for decades

DR. SALLA: Welcome everyone to my Exopolitics commentary where I'm talking about this breaking news, this development that really has shocked a lot of people because documents have been released that show unequivocally that the whole Russia collusion narrative that had been launched in 2017 against President Donald Trump during his first presidential term in office was a hoax all along that was actually contrived by the Deep State . And what I'm going to be doing is presenting to you an exopolitics perspective so you get to see how what we are witnessing right now fits into the bigger picture of exopolitics which gives us a much more expansive view of world events than you get through the standard geopolitical narrative. So what I want to do now is just first of all play for you Tulsi Gabbard and what she had to reveal about the Russia election hoax.

TULSI: For many shocked by the outcome of the 2016 election, one theory on how it happened seemed to prevail.

MUELLER: There should be no fuzz on this whatsoever. The Russians interfered in our election during the 2016 cycle.

TULSI: The charges of election interference by Russia were explored by Congress, Special Counsel Robert Mueller and Special Counsel John Durham. But a new report from the Office of the Director of National Intelligence assesses key intelligence was manipulated and withheld from the American people by the intelligence community. Calling on former FBI Director James Comey, former Director of National Intelligence James Clapper, former CIA Director John Brennan and former President Barack Obama and a December 9th, 2016 National Security Council meeting.

FOX NEWS: The attacks that came out of that meeting was coming from President Obama directing the intelligence community to produce an intelligence assessment that detailed not if, but how Moscow affected the outcome of the election that had already occurred electing Donald Trump to the presidency.

TULSI: Gabbard suggesting a cover-up of key information about Russia's intent and capabilities hacking into election systems and infrastructure. But these just declassified documents detail what was said at the time that foreign adversaries do not have and will probably not obtain the capabilities to successfully execute widespread and undetected cyber-attacks. Cyber-attacks that…

DR. SALLA: Alright well there you get the news report that Gabbard was a part of where she is shown describing the kind of process by which there was this Russia collusion and there was a diagram that was shown and I'm going to talk a little bit about that diagram with you now and just go over it because it gives you an idea of what actually happened.

First there were intelligence assessments by the Office of the Director of National Intelligence and those intelligence assessments starting off with a presidential daily briefing and other documents basically concluded that Russia and criminal actors did not impact recent U.S. election results by conducting cyber-attacks on infrastructure.

So that was the intelligence assessment and then you had Donald Trump winning the 2016 election. So you have this intelligence assessment that happened around the time Trump won both before and after and then on December 9th, so this is a month after Donald Trump was elected president. So that was in November 2016, so on December 9th there was a secret Russia meeting where President Obama, Director of the FBI, James Comey and the Office of the Director of National Intelligence James Clapper actually met to plan the Russia hoax.

So on December 8th, potus briefing pool, so this was the presidential daily briefing that said unequivocally that Russia did not interfere in the 2016 election, but that was pulled and never returned. It was just buried somewhere. And the next day Obama gave an order, the intelligence community begins outlining new assessments to claim election was hacked.
So there's a presupposed or there's an assumption here that the election was hacked and the intelligence community had to find data proving that, showing that that's what happened. And then there were Deep State leaks, so they began leaking select documents to the media to spread the fake news.
So you have news from NBC, the Washington Post, New York Times, the Deep State media assets. And so there was a fake weaponized assessment suppressed prior intelligence showing Russia lacked intent and capability to hack the 2016 election. So that was the official assessment, but there was a fake assessment saying that Russia did indeed hack it.
So then you have the whole Russia hoax. So that's the kind of flowchart of the events that occurred with this whole narrative that the Russia collusion was happening and that Trump was elected only because Russians under President Putin wanted him to be a part of that, for Trump to become the president of the United States.
So now we have to ask ourselves, what is the exopolitics element in the whole Russia collusion hoax? Well, this is where we need to look at what it was that President Putin stood for as president of Russia around the time Trump won the election or ran for the presidency around 2016.
So Putin was very much on the record saying that the West is run by satanists. So this is what Putin had to say. There's a video here, it goes for a minute where Putin spells out his view that the West is actually promoting Satanism and says that the West is putting out this perverted religion Satanism while he's praising Russian values, the traditional Russian values emphasize he can, you can listen to Putin in his own words. Of course it's in Russian, so I'm not playing it for you. But it's pretty clear that Putin regards the West as being run by Satanists. So what does that mean?

I mean, are we talking about people that don't have any kind of values or the opposite to Christian values? I think what he's really talking about here is that that's a code word for the Deep State control through Dracoreptilians and the Fourth Reich that practice Satanic Ritual Abuse. And so this is something that has been known for some time that there is this Deep State where you have all of these senior level bureaucrats or officials.
So in this case with the Russia collusion hoax that would include Obama, Brennan, Comey, James Clapp, of those people, they would all be regarded as kind of like Deep State actors. But behind the scenes you have even more powerful groups that are pressuring these Deep State actors. And this is where we get into the exopolitics field because this is where you start to find out that there's this Dracoreptilians presence and also a Fourth Reich presence.
And that especially when it comes to the Dracoreptilians and those that are going to beholding to those extraterrestrials, they practice satanic ritual abuse. And what happens is that these satanists, and here you can consider these satanists being Deep State operatives under the who are minions of the Dracoreptilians and on the Fourth Reich, compromising political figures in honeypot operations using children. And that's where you get people like Jeffrey Epstein coming onto the scene whose job was to create these honeypot situations where you could then have prominent political figures blackmailed to do whatever it was that they wanted them to do. And this included UFO related secrets.
And so this is something that was brought to the public's attention by Dr. Eric Weinstein who is a Harvard graduate and was involved with Harvard's mathematics department for some time running their graduate program. And Dr. Weinstein noticed that Epstein had this kind of like interest or this influence because of his funding of the Harvard maths department in terms of what was going on in leading or breakthrough mathematics that Epstein was very interested in gravity wave research and organized a conference with the world's leading antigravity. The world's leading gravity experts who went to the Virgin Islands where they did a conference and played around a little bit.

Let's just use that euphemism for these honeypot operations that Epstein was involved in. Okay, so this is what Jeffrey Epstein was involved with that there was also a UFO element that Dr. Weinstein pointed out.
So when we look at these honeypot operations we're looking at the Deep State, Satanism, Dracoreptilians.
What's clearly happening here is that there is this effort to really compromise leading political figures through honeypot operations so that they could be manipulated into keeping secrets or promoting policies that the Deep State wanted. And so some of the secrets included the UFO element, keeping secret the fact that we are being visited by extraterrestrial life. That is one of the big secrets that the Deep State is keeping from humanity. There are also policies that they wanted to implement which would have helped their agenda. And one of those was a contrived war with Russia.
So this is where you get to kind of get an idea of what it is that the kind of end game was here by the Deep State in kind of creating this Russia collusion hoax. Because if you could contrive a war with Russia what that would mean from the perspective of the Deep State was that disclosure of extraterrestrial life especially positive extraterrestrials. Those extraterrestrials working with say the confederation of planets or the galactic federation that those extraterrestrials would not show up because there would be a war, a major war happening on the earth. And these positive extraterrestrials make it a condition that they only will announce themselves, reveal themselves when there is peace on the planet. So contriving a war with Russia would have been a way to prevent these positive extraterrestrials from appearing, disclosing themselves and introducing a Star Trek future which is what the White Hats want.

The White Hats that is military insiders, people running the different military services in the United States and so forth that are not part of this kind of satanic Deep State that these White Hats which when you put them together internationally you can call them the earth alliance so that comprises politicians, military officials, intelligence officials and so forth that they wanted the United States and the planet to move forward in this Star Trek future.
So that was one of the things that the Deep State wanted to prevent and a war with Russia would open the door to a false flag alien event. So this was really I think what the game plan was through this Russian collusion and kind of like manufacturing a proxy war as we saw, as we eventually saw with what happened in Ukraine that that was the Deep State 's goal. And that had the aim of like just preventing disclosure happening anytime soon, preventing a Star Trek future from occurring and also opening the door to a false flag alien event where you get these alien saviors showing up.
So why did the Deep State target Trump with Russia collusion charges? That is a very important thing to kind of like understand. So one of the things was to hobble the Trump administration from the very beginning and prevent positive relations with Russia. And so we saw that with what happened to Trump's first national security adviser which was a three star general at General Michael Flynn, Lieutenant General and he was targeted by the Deep State and he was made out to be a supporter of Russia and Trump foolishly really. I mean he kind of like went with what the Deep State was doing and kind of decided that he would accept Michael Flynn's resignation. And so someone who actually knew how the intelligence process worked because Flynn was a former director of the defense intelligence agency that that kind of knowledge would now be denied to Trump and the people placed at the head of the different intelligence communities they would be kind of like easily manipulated by the Deep State . And so what it was that really was the kind of like end game or what the Deep State really wanted to do was to create war with Russia that would fulfill this kind of Gog and Magog End Times prophecy that a lot of evangelical Christians believe and you kind of find echoes of that in Islam, the kind of final days, the arrival of the Mādī, the return of Isa or Jesus.

And so the Deep State was going to use this kind of manufactured war with Russia to create a Gog and McGog End Times war and topping all that off with an alien salvation event where aliens would be the ones that would actually be saving humanity.
So why was Trump so intent on having good relations with Russia and stopping a Gog and McGog End Times war? So this is something I wrote an article about. Did Trump stop the Gog and Magog war when he intervened in the latest kind of escalation of the Israel-Iran war. And this article, it's a commentary and I present the elements of this Gog and Magog End Times war being planned as far back as 2001 when General Wesley Clark went to the Pentagon and found out to his surprise that there was a plan to attack seven Middle East countries. These would be Iraq, Lebanon, Sudan, Somalia, Libya, Syria and eventually Iran, that Iran would be the last one.
And as we now look back at what Wesley Clark revealed, we now know that in fact that this was conducted, that this is what actually happened that you did have a succession of manufactured wars. Now in this commentary here, I talk also about the city of London being involved, that there was something called the Anglo-Saxon plan and that was developed back in 2005, which outlined an End Times war that would lead to the loss of millions of lives in the Middle East through the use of nuclear weapons.
So this was a plan hatched back going all the way back to 2001, 2005, where there would be a manufactured Gog and Magog End Times war as a result of bringing about the end or the collapse of seven Middle East states and that that would lead to a war involving Israel and the use of nuclear weapons in the Middle East. And so this could well have turned into a situation where if the war with Iran had continued and Israel was suffering a lot of damage as a result of Iranian missile strikes during the after Israel's preemptive attack on Iran, that if that was allowed to continue, Israel would have reached an existential crisis and I think most geopolitical experts would say that that's when they would actually use nuclear weapons and they would have used that against Iran on the basis that Iran's missile attacks were threatening the future existence of Israel as a nation state.

So that's would have been the justification. So Trump knew this. I mean Trump was working with the White Hats with the Earth Alliance and he knew what the Deep State plan was and the Prime Minister of Israel Benjamin Netanyahu, he launched his preemptive attack on June 13 of 2025 with the full knowledge that this would be something that would likely involve the kind of U.S. coming into this conflict or if not then Israel would have eventually been compelled and could have justified the use of nuclear weapons because I think that's most of the geopolitical commentators that have talked about the Israel-Iran conflict were saying that this what had happened after about a week of fighting, after a week of tit-for-tat escalations and attacks, Israel was reeling from the Iranian missile barrages and they weren't able to stop them, that too many missiles were getting through and were destroying Israel's infrastructure, that well over 30,000 structures were destroyed by Iran. Now think about that, that's something that has been confirmed in subsequent reports from Israel concerning the rebuilding of structures damaged during the war with Iran and there would have been a permit. Permits are required to rebuild or build anything in Israel.
So Israel was suffering tremendous damage as a result of the Iranian attacks and many geopolitical commentators were saying that if the war continued Iran would have asserted it's up a hand would have continued to pelt Israel with these missile barrages and I think at some point Israel would have used nuclear weapons thereby setting off this kind of Gog and Magog End Times war.
So I think that was the plan, but what happened was Trump intervened, he intervened by attacking three nuclear installations in Iran and that was around June 22nd. He attacked those facilities, he gave Iran advance warning because Trump didn't want this war to escalate by having Iran attack U.S. facilities in the region and so he gave the Iranians advanced warning saying “Hey we're going to bomb these three facilities get your people out and whatever you deem necessary over the next several hours” and so that's what happened.

So the Iranians were able to evacuate their personnel and take out enriched Uranium or take out valuable assets at those nuclear installations and then those installations were bombed, there was no loss of life and then Iran retaliated against the U.S. by bombing several bases in the area, but again they had this advanced notice this time around.
Iran told the U.S. said “Hey we're going to bomb your facilities in Qatar” and I can't remember the exact nation, the Middle East nation where there were major facilities and so you got several hours to get your people out and the U.S. did that, they evacuated the bases and so when the Iranians launched their missiles the missiles were just kind of like it was like target practice for the anti-missile defense system that the U.S. had and then Trump's declared victory, “We bombed Iran’s nuclear facilities, we destroyed them all together and the conflict needs to end now.”
And then two days later Israel and Iran agreed to a cease fire and that was a very, very important development and I think that that was Trump stopping this Gog and Magog End Times war which had been planned going all the way back to 2001 by people in Washington and 2005 by people in the city of London and by people what I'm really talking about you can call them Satanists, Deep State figures that are compromised, that work with Dracoreptilians with the Fourth Reich and that you know their goal was to really stop the U.S. and stop our planet from ever welcoming openly the positive extraterrestrials that were really opposed to what the Dracoreptilians in the Fourth Reich were doing.
So that's kind of gives us an idea of the importance of why it was that Trump intervened in the Israel around conflict. I think he did it because he wanted to stop this thing from escalating into an End Times war. Now why else would Trump have been targeted by the Deep State both doing his first administration and doing the current administration?
Well I think to kind of like understand this we need to go to this information that Donald Trump was approached by a group of generals prior to him running that there were a group of generals that approached him and people there have been researchers that have described this, Gene Decode, Corsi, Juan O Savin and several others have all talked about this that Trump was approached to run by the military people senior military officials are generals and that they were supporting him in his first administration.

So here you have an article I wrote back in 2018 and of course that's when the QAnon movement was in full bloom and of course people were speculating that QAnon actually was not a hoax that it actually represented real-time intelligence being dropped by the military intelligence community that was working with Trump and that they had recruited Trump to run for president to prevent a coup d'etat.
Now what in the world did they have in mind? Well a coup d'etat was because they there was a view that the Obama administration was actually threatening the continued existence of the republic of the American republic.
So this is where we have to ask ourselves well who did these generals represent? I mean they approached Trump around 2014 2015 and said we need you to run because if you don't run we're going to have to stage a coup d'etat against the Obama administration and we don't want to run that risk otherwise there could be civil war so why did they want to do that?
Why did these generals want Trump to run for the presidency so that they wouldn't have to launch a military coup and depose the Obama administration? Who did these generals represent? Well this is where we got to go back a little bit into history especially in the exopolitics history.
So this is where we got to go back to the 1950s where President Dwight D Eisenhower understood that the Majestic 12 group which was set up to run your faux ET related projects that that had been taken over infiltrated by these satanists, by these people that were allied with the Dracoreptilians and the Fourth Reich and we're talking about the Germans operating out of South America and Antarctica and they had built a very powerful Secret Space Program.
So what happened was that President Eisenhower decided to create a safety valve where he would set up an elite group within the U.S.

Marine Corps that would respond that would actually his responsibility was to monitor black operations involving extraterrestrial life and technology and if the running of those black projects at any time threatened the future existence of the republic of the American Republic then it was up to the up to this kind of like special section or this group of generals within the U.S. Marine Corps to intervene if it became necessary.

So was that real? Was that in fact what happened? Well I think when we look at President Eisenhower's famous farewell address where he talks about the dangers the military industrial complex then we get an idea of exactly what it was that Eisenhower was warning about. So what I want to do now is play this for you because I think it's a very important thing to listen to just kind of get an idea of what it was that Eisenhower was really warning the public about.

IKE: The final element in keeping the pieces are military established. Our arms must be measured ready for instant action so that no potential aggressor may be tempted to risk his home in this direction. Our military organization today bears little relation to that known of any of my predecessors in peacetime or indeed by the fighting men of World War II or Korea. Until the latest of our world conflicts the United States had no armaments industry. American makers of plowshares could with time and as required make swords as well, but we can no longer risk emergency improvisation of national defense.

We have been compelled to create a permanent armaments industry of vast proportions. And to do this three and a half million men and women are directly engaged in the defense establishment. We annually spend on military security alone more than the net income of all United States corporations. Now this conjunction of an immense military establishment and a large arms industry is new to the American each of us. But total influence, economic, political, even spiritual is felt in every city, every state house, every office in the federal government.

We recognize the imperative need for this development yet we must not fail to comprehend its grave implications. Our toil, resources, and livelihood are all involved so we the very structure of our society. In the councils of government, women's guard against the acquisition of unwarranted influence whether sought or unsold by the military industrial complex. The potential for the disastrous rise of misplaced power exists and will persist.

We must never let the weight of this combination endanger our liberties or democratic processes. We should take nothing for granted. Only an alert and knowledgeable citizen can compare the proper mission of the huge industrial and military machinery of defense with our peaceful methods and goals. So that security and liberty may prosper together.
DR. SALLA: Okay, so there you have President Eisenhower and his famous warning against the dangers of the military industrial complex. And he was talking about much more than just the armaments industry, lobbying, Congress, formal missile contracts, for more airplane, warship contracts. It was much more than that. It was in fact that the covert, most highly classified projects involving the reverse engineering and development of extraterrestrial technologies, that those projects and the groups running those had gone rogue, that they had become so powerful that even a sitting president such as Eisenhower had to resort to extraordinary lengths to be able to kind of like find out what was going on.
And one of the things that happened was that in 1958, President Eisenhower had to warn the Majestic 12 group that if they did not disclose what was happening in these classified extraterrestrial related projects, that he would get the first army that was stationed in Colorado to invade Area 51.
So that tells you back in the 50s, late 50s, how the military industrial complex in reality, this kind of Deep State hydra, if you like, involving individuals, Deep State officials that were really beholden or had been compromised by this Dracoreptilian Fourth Reich element. And also you could throw in their Orion grays as well, because agreements had been reached with the Orion grays in the Eisenhower administration by the Majestic 12 group.
So all of that was really in what was really concerning Eisenhower. It hadn't very little to do with the armaments industry getting weapons and so forth. It was really how these classified extraterrestrial projects were being run. MJ 12 had gone rogue, he had to threaten to invade Area 51 to get the MJ12 to disclose some of what was happening there. And he warned Kennedy about it and he told Kennedy, he said, look, you need to get this under control. This MJ12 group has gone rogue. And if you don't get them under control quickly, the republic is threatened.

And so that's why President Eisenhower, from the very early phases of his administration, began to pressure the Majestic 12 group to release files, to release the classified files, concerning extraterrestrial life, and to make that available to the bureaucracy at large, so that everyone within the bureaucracy, not just those that were read into these classified programs could find out what was going on.

But because Kennedy knew too much and was making efforts to get to the bottom of what was going on, he was eliminated. There was a coup. And so the murder of President Kennedy by the Deep State, by this satanic group of individuals that are minions or compromised by Dracoreptilians, Orion Grey's, and the Fourth Reich, because that they had staged a coup, that meant that this element within the Eisenhower administration that had been created, the U.S. Marine Corps special section, was activated.

And so they began their plan for how to restore the values and the constitution, and to kind of like save the American republic. So this gives us a little bit of background for the Q movement, because the Q movement is what describes this process, that this kind of like military intelligence initiative, dated back many, many decades. Now this is where we get into the existence of the U.S. Marine Corps special section.

So this is where I discuss Randy Kramer. Now Randy Kramer, he actually, I was the one that broke the story about Randy Kramer at the time. We did a four part Project Moon Shadow series that came out and he just used the pseudonym Captain K. So we went out, we did a series of interviews with Randy Kramer, and he talked about being a super soldier and spending 17 years on Mars as a super soldier and three years in space as a pilot, flying diplomatic missions and providing cover for diplomats and so forth.

So he talked about that in our interviews in our four part series, and the origins of the Marine Corps special section that this had been set up by President Eisenhower, and that the goal was to protect the republic if it was ever threatened at any time by those running the extraterrestrial related projects, the Majestic 12 group, the Deep State who work in tandem.

Now another source that I've interviewed and brought out was Michael Gerloff, who actually served in the U.S. Marine Corps and served as a Green Beret, and eventually became an international policeman. So a very credible person, and he also describes being recruited by the U.S. Marine Corps into a Secret Space Program, and he described what happened during his recruitment and also that he learned about this special section within the Marine Corps that was part of the Secret Space Program, whose job it was to monitor how extraterrestrial related projects were being run, and if at any time the republic was threatened to intervene to kind of like restore order.

So that was Michael Gerloff. I've done a number of stories on him as well as Randy Kramer. If you just go to my website exopolitics.org, you just enter their names and you'll see links coming forward. Now this is where we also get Laura Eisenhower, who I just did an interview with, and she's been doing a lot of research herself to find out what happened during the Eisenhower administration, and her research has shown that President Eisenhower was tricked and manipulated by the Deep State, by the Majestic 12 group, by the minions of these different extraterrestrial negative groups and the Satanists. I mean they're all kind of working, collaborating together, and that he was manipulated, and so agreements were reached during his administration, that he didn't necessarily approve or even was a part of. But Laura has also found other sources that she says also validates the creation of this special group within the U.S. Marine Corps that would step in to save the republic when these extraterrestrial related projects had gone awry and had gone rogue.

So that was Laura Eisenhower's kind of like research into this group that had been set up by President Eisenhower because of the rogue operations of the of those organizations that were running extraterrestrial related projects in the United States.

So now let's kind of fast forward to the Obama administration. So what was happening during the Obama administration? And you can even go back a little bit earlier to the Bush administration because the Bush administration was doing this as well.
So it's not just that Democrats are somehow beholden to the Deep State that you also, the Bush administration, that's George W. Bush, that he was also part of this plan to create a Gog and Magog End Times war. So what was happening during the Bush and Obama administration was that the American republic was under dire threat due to the growing power of the Deep State that planned to bankrupt the United States in endless wars and loss of its manufacturing industry.
So that was something that happened under the Bush administration. You have the wars in Iraq and you have the wars that were happening in Libya and so forth that, well actually the Libya war that happened under the Obama administration. But that Wesley Clark plan of attacking seven nations that began to unfold during the Bush administration with the attack against Iraq. And then you had Somalia and the whole list. And that also spilled over into the Obama administration when Obama decided to attack Libya, remove a kind of functional Libyan state that was very profitable and very peaceful and replaced that with a chaotic failed state which is what happened. And so the idea was, and this was something that was hatched by the Deep State, was that because the U.S. would be involved in these endless wars in Iraq, in Libya, Syria, Sudan, Somalia the list goes on and on, then eventually what would happen is that that would bankrupt the United States.
And because the United States had basically sent its manufacturing industries over to China due to these free trade agreements with China that had been orchestrated during the Clinton, Bush and Obama administrations, that everything was set up for the American Republic to essentially eventually collapse.
And that would make China the dominant global power. And that was what the Deep State wanted to make China the new base for Deep

State operations now. It's not doesn't take a rocket scientist to understand why China is an authoritarian state. It's a very heavily a top down political system whereas in the United States, you have power dispersed between the legislature, between the judiciary, and the executive office, and then you have the state powers and decentralization with counties and so forth and sheriffs. And so all of these have power under the constitution and just can't be overridden by a dictatorial central government or dictator operating at the top. But in China, you don't have those problems. So the Deep State was very happy with making China its new base of operations bankrupting the United States through endless wars, ensuring that the U.S. lost all its manufacturing industries to China.

And so that was the plan. That was what the Deep State was doing during the Obama administration. And this U.S. Marine Corps special section and the generals involved with that and in the U.S. Navy, the Emeralds and Air Force Army in particular, that they those generals that were aware of the seriousness of this problem, they needed they needed to stop this they need to stop the endless wars and the relocation of the American manufacturing industry, essentially gutting the American manufacturing industry in favor of China becoming the world's manufacturing hub.

And so this was what the White Hats in the United States wanted to do was to stop all of that and to put an end to the endless wars, rebuild U.S. manufacturing. And so they convinced Trump to run for the presidency because if he didn't, they said they would have to stage a coup against Obama. But that was very, very risky. The U.S. couldn't get embroiled in a civil war. And that would just accelerate the collapse of the United States as a global hegemon and accelerate China's rise to global hegemony.

So Trump accepted. And so he was supported all along from U.S. military intelligence. And we know that from the QAnon operation. And more importantly, Trump was working with positive extraterrestrials. The Galactic Federation. We know this from Professor Haim Eshad. Eshad has revealed that Trump was aware of this organization and that they wanted to move forward with disclosure. There was also a briefing about Nordic extraterrestrials, friendly extraterrestrials that Trump had. And that was something that was confirmed by David Grush.

And more recently, we learned through an Italian newspaper called Espresso, which is a mainstream Italian newspaper, so they wouldn't publish this if it wasn't something that the White hats want it to leaked. And this is part of the Earth Alliance.
So Italy, under its president government, Georgia Maloney, who is the prime minister, are part of this Earth Alliance that are wanting to expose and remove the Deep State and these corrupt elites that are that have been compromised by Nazis, by reptilians, by Satanists, and these Gray extraterrestrials. So what happened was that La Stumpa. So no, it wasn't La Stumpa. It was another Italian newspaper. Its name escapes me at the moment. It'll come back to me at some point. But essentially, what this newspaper report was saying was that Trump had been briefed about Project Preserve Destiny, which was something that a former U.S. Air Force military USA Force electronics specialist, Dan Sherman, was aware of because he was assigned to the National Security Agency, where in addition to being an electronics communications expert in a classified program that was overseen by the NSA, he was also an intuitive communicator for an even more highly classified communication program with Gray extraterrestrials that were abducting U.S. citizens all over the country. And so he learned all about that. So that was another extraterrestrial related project that Trump learned about during his administration.
So this now takes us to what is going on right now. I mean, what we see with Tulsi Gabbard's disclosure of the Trump collusion hoax and its origins tells us that key players in the Deep State that is President Obama, President Biden, John Brennan, the former CIA director, James Clapper other former office of the Director of National Intelligence and James Comey, the former director of the FBI, that these are people that are likely going to at the very least be investigated or called before Congress to report or arrested.
And that would actually lead to the collapse of the Deep State if these individuals are arrested and removed from power. And because they are key actors in the Deep State, which is following the marching orders of the negative extraterrestrials and the Satanists and they are wanting to kind of like escalate this war with Russia.

I mean, it was manufactured in February of 2022, where when Ukraine was armed to the teeth, it had an army, it had the second strongest army in Europe, over 400,000 men that had been equipped with the latest NATO weapons and so forth. And they were ready to overrun these Oblasts in the east, the Dombas region, Lugansk and the Dombas, Oblasts, and they were going to overrun those in a lightning military campaign.
And the Russians, because they have their own satellite surveillance systems, they knew this, they saw what was coming and so they decided to intervene before the Ukrainians launched their blitzkrieg, which was modeled on Operation Storm, which was the Croatian military operation, to basically do the same thing to Serbia in 1995, when these Ukrainian enclaves that were run by Serbian separatists were overrun by the Croatian army that had been built up by the U.S. and NATO.
And so they were going to do the same thing with Ukraine and the Oblast, but Russia said nope, no, no, .No way we're going to allow that to happen. And so, and so there has been a conflict, the military conflict with Russia, ever since it's been a proxy war when NATO has been basically fighting Russia through its intermediary or proxy Ukraine.
And so that's been that happened throughout the Biden administration and all of us know how the Biden administration gave the Ukrainians weapons and kind of like political cover to escalate across all the red lines that Russia had and eventually begin attacking Russia itself in what are essentially terrorist strikes, because attacking Russian cities makes absolutely no difference to the ground operations in Ukraine itself in the East where the fighting is happening.
And this is just terrorism and trying to escalate the conflict so that NATO intervenes in a more direct way in this conflict. And the goal, as I've said earlier, is to kind of escalate this conflict. So it would become a Gog and Magog End Times war that when you combine a war with Iran with the kind of like events surrounding Ukraine, that that would all spiral into this Gog and Magog End Times war.

But Trump is working with Vladimir Putin to restore relations and to end this manufactured war in the Ukraine. And yes, they're doing it for a number of reasons. Of course, Russians. I mean, the last thing they want to do is kill fellow Orthodox Slavs, the Ukrainians and the Russians have very deep historic ties. And it really is a kind of like in the American Civil War, the North and the South. I mean, there were people that were divided, families were divided, and communities were divided by this conflict.
Same thing in Ukraine. There's a lot of Russians fighting for Ukraine and the Russians know this. They don't want to kill their compatriots who were basically conscripted into the Ukrainian army, which kind of helps explain why Russia has been so cautious in its operations. But that seems to be changing now because NATO and the European Union wants to escalate the conflict even further by having Ukraine attack Russia using long range missiles. But Putin and Trump are working to bring that conflict to an end because both of them are part of this Earth Alliance and they understand that having peaceful relationships between the major powers on Earth is a requirement for extraterrestrial contact.
So if we want the positive extraterrestrials to show up, to reveal themselves and us being able to kind of like leverage that to be able to move into a Star Trek future, then we need to have peaceful relations.
So I think this is why we are kind of like witnessing this move by the White Hats, by the Earth Alliance, in the Trump administration to expose the Deep State. And I really wish the Trump administration all the best in being able to bring these Deep State figures to trial and to curtail and to destroy the power of the Deep State . So that's it for this Exopolitics commentary. Thanks for watching. I look forward to doing this again with you soon. Aloha.
